

Open Call

transeuropa 2024 – making space is looking for artists for the BYOB event!

The transeuropa festival is a festival of performing arts for the young European scene that takes place every three years. This year it will take place from 11th to 15th September in Hildesheim.

The motto of the eleventh edition is: "Making Space"

During the festival we are organising a BYOB!

BYOB stands for Bring Your Own Beamer. In Europe projectors are often referred to as beamers. BYOB is an art action invented by media artist Rafaël Rozendaal. All you need is a room with enough sockets. The idea is simple:

Anyone who brings a projector may plug it in and show their own art. Videos, animations, pictures – as long as it can be projected. So the interior of the room fills up with ever more colourful light and lots of art to discover.

For this we are looking for people who can come on September 12th from 08:30-11:00 pm with their beamer and art.

We offer you...

- ... a power supply, a projection surface and inclusion into the festival programme
- ... a place where you can show your art to a wide audience
- ... if you cannot bring a beamer, a beamer by arrangement

Do you want to be part of transeuropa 2024 - making space?

Then apply by September 1st at [info\[at\]transeuropa-festival.de](mailto:info@transeuropa-festival.de) for an info zoom!

Looking forward to your application,
the transeuropa 2024 team
